

GREAT CENTRAL RAILWAY,
MARYLEBONE STATION,
N.W.

23rd June, 1922.

Dear Sir,

Yew Tree Signal Box on fire.

The Chief Mechanical Engineer having drawn attention to the service rendered by you on 19th June, 1921, we have much pleasure in conveying an expression of the Company's appreciation of your conduct on that occasion, and have the further pleasure to hand you the sum of £1, being an award from the "Sir Edward Watkin Special Award Fund".

We are,

Yours truly,

General Manager.

Secretary.

Mr. J. W. Cowley,
Gorton.